bayram

A group of young girls, likely from a school, are performing a dance in an outdoor courtyard. They are wearing white long-sleeved shirts and red skirts with white polka dots. Each girl is holding a large red pom-pom in her right hand and a silver pom-pom in her left hand, with both arms raised. They are arranged in several rows. In the background, a large Turkish flag (red with a white crescent and star) is being held up. To the right of the flag is a vertical banner with the letters 'K', 'U', 'L', 'T', 'Ü', 'R' in colorful circles. Further right is a building with a circular emblem on its wall. The scene is set on a paved area with buildings and trees in the background under a clear blue sky.
